

Cancellation of debt – the next step

Cancellation of debt.....	1
What is discharge of debt?	1
Debt assumed in divorce.....	2
Military members – motor vehicle leases.....	3
Foreclosures and short sales	3
Sales proceeds or cancellation of debt income?.....	3
Recourse and nonrecourse	4
So, is the loan recourse or nonrecourse?	4
The bifurcated approach to recourse debt	4
The one-step sales approach to nonrecourse debt	6
Two debts – one nonrecourse, one recourse	6
Using IRC §121 in a foreclosure	7
The qualified principal residence exclusion.....	8
When a portion of the mortgage is not qualified principal residence indebtedness	9
Coordination with other provisions	10
California’s debt relief provisions.....	11
2007 and 2008 provisions	12
Other COD provisions.....	12
Exclusion from income IRC §108	13
The bankruptcy exclusion	13
The insolvency exclusion.....	13
When is a taxpayer insolvent?.....	14
Assets for purposes of the insolvency exclusion.....	14
Nonrecourse debt and insolvency	17
Insolvency and residence exclusion.....	17
Electing the insolvency provisions over residence exclusion	17
Using both the residence and the insolvency exclusions.....	19
The qualified farm indebtedness exclusion.....	21
The exclusion for cancellation of student loans	21
Loan repayment programs.....	21
The exclusion for discharge of qualified real property business indebtedness.....	22
Does rental property qualify for the exclusion?.....	22
Limitations on exclusion.....	23
Depreciable basis limitation.....	24
Applying the basis reduction.....	24
Special rules for partnerships and S corporations	25
Property converted from personal to business use, or vice versa	26
Deferral of income on repurchased debt (IRC §108(i))	27
Reacquisition.....	27
Acceleration of deferred items.....	27
Passthrough entities	27
IRS provides guidance (Rev. Proc. 2009-37)	28
California nonconformity	28
Reduction of tax attributes.....	29
Coordinating the §108 relief provisions with each other and with IRC §121	30

Reporting the COD	31
Form 1099-C	32
Form 1099-A	32
Incorrect forms	34
Preparing the returns	34
Preparing the California return	39
Cancellation of debt and residency	43
Income from real property	43
Credit card debt	43
Repossession – the “other” side of foreclosure	44
Calculating gain on the repossession	44
Repossession of former principal residence	45
Basis of repossessed property	46
Appendix	47
Checklist for Exclusion of COD Income Resulting from Cancellation of Home Mortgage Indebtedness	47
Glossary	1
Index	2